Kyle (son): My mom gave us so many memories that I am sure we will never forget. She will be remembered as the person that went through it all with a smile on her face. I love you Mom your son Kyle.

Maya (daughter): Mom always had the motto to keep on moving forward. Thanks for raising me to be the person I am today, teaching me to be pure, helping me to be modest.
Daughter Maya

Parents: Thanks you Naomi for your good warm heart and for all the Joy you brought into our lives. There was nothing you would not do for us if possible. I loved hearing you play the piano as we would sing. Naomi brought a good spirit into our home. You were quick to pray and loved talking about the Lord. Naomi was a precious gift to our family. God granted us 13 more years after the original diagnosis. So thankful for the 42 years we had with her. We love you so much Naomi and you will always be in our hearts. Love your parents

Naomi: It has been a very long journey for all of us. Nobody chose this life for me; I certainly did not choose this for myself, but I did the best that I could with what I was given. By the Father God he is so faithful, and he has never let me down. I know that it will be difficult to live without me in the coming years, but I do not want you guys to be sad but be happy that I am in a much better place and much better state. Thank you for your prayers that kept me here for 13 additional years. Until we meet again, I am excited to see all the faithful ones that have gone on before us especially Jether Vinson. I survived 13 years longer than expected so I thank you for all your prayers. And remember life is a highway and I encourage you to ride it all night long!!!

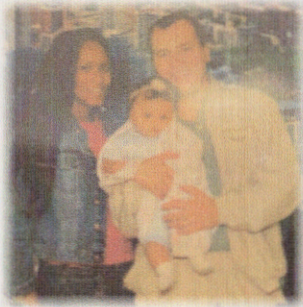

Sisters: You've gone on to our Father, a heavenly place. No longer in pain and peace and in its place. Rest now our dear sister you have now earned your crown. You have fought many battles like Queen of the town. We will miss you our Dear sister for all you were to us. And the memories we will cherish in our soul forever be. We will love you forever and in my heart you will always remain. Until we dance again with Jesus go on and do yo thang...

Siblings: To our dearest beloved Sister Naomi, Eternal love is a word that comes to mind and explains the biggest part about who you were and will continue to be from heaven. Eternal love is forever. This is the way you lived your life and affected everyone around you. As a family of 10 siblings, we have never experienced pain or loss this close to our hearts. In our hearts we knew this day would eventually come, but we all believed and prayed that God would heal you completely. We all had faith for that!! But just the thought of you not being here was a very difficult thought to handle. You were a very special, beautiful, smart, gifted, and gave so much to the world. We can say there will be always something missing in our hearts when we look to our left or right and see you are not there. This void in our hearts will be filled with all the memories and good times we shared with you. We rejoice because we know that you are home in heaven with all the saints, and you are at rest in our saviors' arms. We look forward to the day when we can embrace and rejoice together with you. Our God did do a miracle within you, that will last for all eternity. And now you are there, jamming on that piano, playing a heavenly song for all to sing. We love you our beloved Sis! Eternally.

Brothers: To our dearest little-big sis Naomi., Eternal Love is a word that explains the biggest part about who u were. We as a family of ten siblings have never experienced pain or loss this close to our hearts. We knew doctors would say the day would come, but it was something we never wanted to think or even talk about, just the thought of you not being here was unbearable. Someone so special, very beautiful, smart with so many skills to offer the world would be gone and leave a big hole in our hearts, that I know only God can fill. You left us in so much pain, our hearts ache for the day we all will be together again, in the arms of are heavenly father. We love u big sis! Eternally.

Leah (sister): To my dear sister I will miss our special moments together, but you left many good memories of your loving kindness and big heart. You open your home to me when I was growing up and made a deep impression on me as a child and young adult. I love you so much and cannot wait until I see you again in heaven.
